Amazing illustrations. Each artist brings his uniqueness to his designs. Beautifully printed and bound, although it is much smaller than I thought it would be.

You WILL Want a Tattoo After Seeing This Book!

By Pope Mel

This is a fine collection of b&w drawings by four different artists, all inspired by Mexico's Day of the Dead folk art.

Sure, there are plenty of ornately decorated skulls, but check out these skeletal mariachi bands! Then take a gander at the zombified religious icons, skeletons in hot rods, and the grateful dead quaffing tequila. (It's quite interesting that most of the female skeletons have somehow managed to keep abundant flesh in the chest area...)

The artwork in this book has made me contemplate, for the first time in my life, getting a tattoo. Should I go for the Dia de los Muertos-flavored C3PO, or the dead rubber chicken?

I'll flip a coin.

Me encanta este libre de arte

By Jenna Carlson

Such a rad book! It's kind of like a coloring book for awesome line art because the pages are light and somewhat fragile. Either way, I love having this book on my coffee table next to all of my other art books :)

Thanks for the awesome service and great product :)
