Wouldn't recommend these

By lmd

I am of the generation of the ORIGINAL Eggbert and Eggberta books and I was disappointed in the new and "improved" versions of these. I believe in "if it ain't broke, don't fix it" and the originals weren't broken!! I ordered these to give to a neighbor whose husband is the son of a minister and I am clueless as to why swearing was thought to be necessary. I don't remember that Eggberta appeared at all in the original "Eggbert", but I may have forgotten. I don't think the diary adds anything to book and the fact they are paperbacks pretty much eliminates the functionality of putting pictures of any kind in them.

... my son and girlfriend as wanted to share this great memory for their expected one

By Pat Dickey

I bought this for my son and girlfriend as wanted to share this great memory for their expected one. I remember my sister giving me one of the original books when I was first pregnant moons ago and the smiles it brought to me. Searched online to see if they even had Eggbert books anymore and even more pleased that in diary form. My husband couldn't remember our book but when he went through the pages, it brought back memories to him. I could hear him saying "Oh yeah, remember that". He was into it too again.
