By the grace of G-d

A well-lit and accessible gateway to Tanya, and the most authoritative guide to its riches.

A linear exposition and commentary on Tanya based on a popular weekly radio series in Yiddish. Rabbi Wineberg's commentary draws upon the teachings he received from Chasidic scholars at the renowned academies of Lubavitch in Europe and on the writings of seven generations of Chabad Rebbes. Each of the lectures was examined and amended by the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, so that much of the material includes the Rebbe's insights and explanatory comments.

Lessons In Tanya leads the reader through every paragraph and page, illuminating the mystical, often allusive Talmudic, Kabbalistic and Scriptural verses and concepts. It fills many gaps in what the terse Tanya text assumes to be the reader's background knowledge.

This set comes in a beautiful slip-cased set, with ribbon-markers to aid with study.

Not just for Chabad and the Lubavitchers

By Survivor

Really enjoyed reading this bit by bit. The commentaries are at times overwhelming if your just trying to get through the text one time for an initial read. You will have to read this many times to harvest the meanings and wisdom. Good companion to the Zohar and other mystical texts.
