In Let The Universe Lead You!, bestselling author and spiritual explorer Richard Dotts reveals the steps to letting the Universe lead you in whatever you do.

Imagine what your life would be like if you could simply hold an intention for something... and then be led clearly and precisely, every single time, to the fulfilment of your deepest desires. No more wondering about whether you are on the “right” path or making the “right” moves. No more second-guessing yourself or acting out of desperation — You simply set an intention and allow the Universe to lead you to it effortlessly!

According to Richard, the Universe does not always give you what you want, but it always gives you the vibrational essence of what you ask for. Understanding this spiritual principle is the key to your physical manifestations. This is why so many people do not get what they ask for in words or prayers despite wanting it so badly, because they do not realize the true vibrational essence of their asking. Once you open your eyes to the true vibrational essence of your intentions, you’ll see that the Universe always delivers a perfect match, every single time. Manifestations then become as simple as deliberately becoming a vibrational match to what you ask for until it happens in your outer reality!

Let The Universe Lead You! is a groundbreaking book not only for fans of Richard Dotts but also for Richard himself. As he was writing this book, Richard manifested the perfect dream car for himself with all his desired options and features. He attributes this to the immense power of Reverse Manifestations, a technique which he introduced in Spontaneous Manifestations From Zero and expands upon in this book.

Applying the process of Reverse Manifestations and connecting to the vibrational essence of his desires for himself, Richard was able to manifest his dream car in one Sunday afternoon. Two days later even before this book was completed, the car was sitting in his garage!

Read about Richard’s amazing car manifestation experience in this book and find out how you can do it for yourself with any intention that you set your mind to. These techniques are open and available for anyone’s use, regardless of your current conditions or circumstances in life. They do not depend on willpower or luck. All it takes is a willingness to apply them in your life as described and to let your old ways of thinking and acting in this world go. When you give up the need to be in control and let the Universe lead you, that is when you’ll finally be led to your longstanding manifestations.

As Richard puts it, “I started writing this book holding only the intention of the car in my consciousness. Two days later, as I followed the exercises while describing them in the book, the car was mine. Even a part of myself was surprised although I’ve been doing this for the longest time! I was gently led to my dream car in one afternoon after six months of doing nothing on the outside.”

This is just a glimpse of what is possible when you practice the art of reverse manifestations, connect with the vibrational essence of your desires and allow yourself to be led by the Universe. The Universe always knows best, so let it lead you towards your manifestations!

Awesome

This is truly the way.. I started something new a few weeks ago which was just letting go and expecting good things from day to day. I am a big believer in the law of attraction but for some reason have never had a lot of success with it.. So I decided on keeping it simple and just going with the flow.. I decided to just work on expecting the best to happen to me and using simple affirmations to keep my mind straight with what I wanted to happen..One of my affirmations i said to myself was " everyday in every way my limiting beliefs keep fading away".. A slight intuitive nudge told me to purchase this book instantly when I saw it.. It's totally what I needed and has changed my life for the better since

Easy to understand information. I remember the old new age cliché, you create your own reality. But no one ever said HOW you did it. This book might be his best work. And you will learn how...

Direction that fits me.

By Kim Robinson

I have been practicing LOA for several years and there were aspects of it that didn't fit me, my personality, and my beliefs. I've gotten great info but never that "YES, THAT'S IT", until Richard Dotts. He has written what I've been questioning, and giving the why and how. Most of what he's referenced I've read and tried to follow, ending up where he's been. LOA works but it's not one size fits all. If you're not a visualizer, affirmation repeater then his books are for you. YES THIS IS IT!
