This Book Changed My Life

By stormie

I was just now filling out a form to send to "Crossings", in answer to their request for me to tell them about the book that changed my life. I decided to see if Amazon had the book, for the correct spelling of the author's name. So, here I am posting a review. Before I read this book, all my prayers were about me, myself and I. My prayer time was a miserable time. A friend let me read her copy. My prayers went from being about me, to praising God for who he was, his goodness, his mercy, and his love in my life, and that of my family. My prayer time became a joyful time. I found myself praising God, regardless of the situation I was facing, knowing my heavenly Father was in complete control of my life. While I've never agreed with Merlin that God sent it all...the good AND the evil, I believe it could not have come my way unless God ALLOWED it. (I'll put it this way: I agree with Joseph, in the Bible. 'you meant it for my harm, but God meant it for my good.') I am not posting a review for the sake of arguing with anyone. I will not. I just want to say that this book definitely changed my prayer life, therefore, my entire life. I encourage anyone and everyone to read it, especially if your prayer life is boring, or frustrating. It could change YOUR prayer life!

How to have joy every day

By Otto D. Batty

This book transformed my faith in day to day living. I have read this book many times. On almost every page there is Scripture to uplift the soul. I learned how to effectively defeat the Devil when he attacks me. I learned how to find joy when it wasn't the Devil's fault. This book taught me how to Praise God on a level I had never experienced.

An easy book to read and doesn't have to be read in one sitting.

It is a joyous book which brings delight and happiness to one's soul. It is filled with great short stories. This is a book worth keeping in the home to read at anytime.
