ROBERT SOBUKWE - HOW CAN MAN DIE BETTER BY BENJAMIN POGRUND PDF

"On 21 March 1960, Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe led a mass defiance of South Africa's pass laws. He urged blacks to go to the nearest police station and demand arrest. Police opened fire on a peaceful crowd in the township of Sharpeville and killed 69 people. The protest changed the course of South Africa's history. Afrikaner rule stiffened and black resistance went underground. International opinion hardened against apartheid. Sobukwe, leader of the Pan-Africanist Congress, was jailed for three years for incitement. At the end of his sentence the government, fearful of his power, rushed the so-called 'Sobukwe Clause' through Parliament, to keep him in prison without a trial. For the next six years, Sobukwe was kept in solitary confinement on Robben Island, the infamous apartheid prison near Cape Town. On his release, Sobukwe was banished to the town of Kimberley with very severe restrictions on his freedom. He died there nine years later in February 1978. This book is the story of this South African hero - the lonely prisoner on Robben Island. It is also the story of the friendship between Robert Sobukwe and Benjamin Pogrund whose joint experiences and debates chart the course of a tyrannous regime and the growth of black resistance. "

thank u Sobukwe

By Sphiwe

I really loved the book especially the beginning chapters. I felt the middle chapters were a bit slow because they focused more on the author's relationship with Sobukwe and less on the liberation movement or his beliefs. Still it seems that it is Sobukwe's own supporters that misunderstood him more than the Nats. Sobukwe's theory was also more that of the ANC than that of his followers in the PAC. One cannot help but wonder what life would have held for him if he remained in the ANC.

Thank you Tata Sobukwe. We will not disappoint you! Izwelethu!
