Not the best quality for something described as new.

By Bryce

There's a large black marker spot on the bottom of the book, which is pretty annoying seeing as the product is described as new. The actual content of this light novel is amazing though.

Light novel, medium to heavy content

By James H. Lestrangle

After ordering and reading the first volume of this title, I found myself 'haunting' the Amazon site, waiting for the second volume to be released. I had to wait a couple of months, but the wait was worth it. I found myself liking the second volume more than the first (of course, since the second answered questions that I had from the first, I MIGHT have been a little biased toward Volume 2).

The personal interactions in this book get more and more complex and detailed, until I found myself feeling that I was 'spying' on the lives of several people and enjoying it immensely. I was a bit disappointed that a couple of things that had been left under-detailed in the first book were treated to rather short shrift in this one, but overall, this book was every bit as enjoyable as the first one. I can't WAIT for the NEXT volume!!!

Man or woman, young or old, if you like 'slice-of-life' fiction with a touch of romance thrown in as spice, both Volume 1 and Volume 2 come with a high recommendation from me.

By Hachi Sakura

By the time You finish reading the second "Strawberry Panic" Novel You'll find a new story line with twists that never happened in the Anime.. If you loved the Anime, You should buy and read the Novel's, there's much more to them..
